Sir,

I have the honour to State that Keshavachar, Archik of the Sri Anjanaya Swami temple at Saklespur, Manjarabad Taluk, is reported to be 75 years old with defective eyesight, and unable to look after his duties. The Archik represents that after his father, he served the institution for about 60 years, and prays that in consideration thereof a Son-in-law of his deceased only Son, may be appointed archik of the temple.

The

The Amildar reports that the said relative Shamachar is a competent man for the post, and recommends him for being employed as Archik. Shamachar is reported to be living at Sakleshpur with Archik Keshavachar and has consented to look after the duties.

2 The said Kesavapan has deposed before the Amildar that owing to old age he has become incapable of discharging the duties of his office and that one Shamapan, son-in-law of his only son (now dead) has been looking after the temple puja for the past 6 years and has also been protecting him, and he therefore prays that the said Shamapan may be appointed to the Archakship of the temple in his place. The Deputy Commissioner supports the prayer
